The 1962 Newport Jazz Festival

Newport, a top sailing spot, is an all-seasons resort offering a beautiful harbour that is rich in colonial history, as well as white beaches and some splendid scenery. Newport was the setting for the marriage of John F Kennedy to Jacqueline Bouvier and hosted the Americas Cup race for 53 years. Many of its magnificent mansions, including those built by the Vanderbilts and the Astors, are open to the public. Other sights include the Touro Synagogue, which has been restored to its former glory, and the White Horse Tayern, built in 1673 by a pirate.

However what draws music lovers to Ford Adams State Park is the world famous The Newport Jazz Festival.
