NOTA

Ce disque a été réalisé d'après des enregistrements inédits datant de plus de vingt ans dont la qualité technique n'est évidemment pas parfaite. Nous avons procédé à un minimum de corrections pour améliorer le plus possible des bruits et requerrons apparemment sur le matériel d'origine. Toutefois, bien que les procédés employés de filtrage et de nettoyage, nous n'avons pas voulu éliminer totalement les bruits de surface afin de ne pas altérer la sonorité originale de ces interprétations.

This record has been produced from hitherto unpublished recordings dating back more than twenty years, the quality of which is obviously not perfect. We have made as few changes as possible, removing only the scratches, which appear on the original work. Nevertheless, even though it is now possible to filter such recordings, we did not wish to eliminate completely the surface noises in order not to destroy the original sound of these renderings.

DUKE ELLINGTON

AIR FORCE 1960

Duke Ellington est certainement le seul jazzman qui ait su cumuler parfaitement les fonctions de pianiste, compositeur, arrangeur et chef d'orchestre. Né à Washington en 1899, il commença à jouer du piano dans les night-clubs de New-York pour payer ses études et architecte en 1920, afin de se consacrer à la musique. En 1924, il prend la direction du groupe "The Washingtonians" et se produit au Cotton Club jusqu'en 1933. Considéré dès lors comme le chef du meilleur des orchestres de jazz, il est régulièrement sollicité pour des concerts et des tournées dans le monde entier, jusqu'à sa mort en mai 1974. Duke Ellington est avec Louis Armstrong le plus important des créateurs de jazz. Alors que chez Armstrong, la génie se manifeste dans l'improvisation en soliste, Ellington donne le meilleur de lui-même avec son grand orchestre. Le blues tient une place de choix dans ses compositions, mais il est renforcé par une orchestration somptueuse, un climat harmonique subtil et des allages sonores d'une rare finesse. Les faces de ce disque sont des prises directes réalisées en 1960 qui offrent l'intérêt exceptionnel d'être inédites à ce jour.

Duke Ellington is certainly the only jazzman who has known perfectly how to cumulate the duties of a pianist, a composer, an arranger and a director of orchestra. Born in Washington, in 1899, he began to play the piano in the night-clubs of New-York to play for his studies of architect which he gave up in 1920, so as to devote himself to music. In 1924, he became director of the Group "The Washingtonians" and appeared at the Cotton Club, till 1932. Considered from then as the head of the best jazz orchestra, he was regularly asked for concerts and tours in all the world, until his death in May 1974. Duke Ellington is with Louis Armstrong the most important of the creators of jazz. The genius of Armstrong appears in the improvisations as a soloist, when Ellington gives the best of himself with his great orchestra. The blues has a place of choice in his compositions, but it is enhanced by a sumptuous orchestration, a subtle harmonic climate and some sonorous combinations of a rare delicacy. The sides presented on his disc are live recordings made in 1960. This record is highly interesting since most of titles have never been released on record.
