DUKE ELLINGTON

from the BLUE NOTE
CHICAGO 1952

Duke Ellington est certainement le seul jazzman qui ait su cumuler parfaitement les fonctions de pianiste, compositeur, arrangeur et chef d'orchestre. Né à Washington en 1899, il commence à jouer du piano dans les night-clubs de New York pour payer ses études d'architecture qu'il abandonne en 1920 afin de se consacrer à la musique. En 1924, il prend la direction du groupe "Le Washingtonians" et se produit au Cotton Club jusqu'en 1932. Considéré dès lors comme le chef du meilleur des orchestres de jazz, il est régulièrement sollicité pour des concerts et des tournées dans le monde entier, jusqu'à sa mort en mai 1974.

Duke Ellington avec Louis Armstrong le plus important des créateurs de jazz. Alors que chez Armstrong, le génie se manifeste dans l'improvisation en soliste, Ellington donne le meilleur de lui-même avec son grand orchestre. Le Blues tient une place de choix dans ses compositions, mais il est rehaussé par une orchestration somptueuse, un climat harmonique subtil et des allages sonores d'une rare finesse.

Duke Ellington is certainly the only jazzman who has known perfectly how to cumulate the duties of a pianist, a composer, an arranger and a director of orchestra. Born in Washington, in 1899, he began to play the piano in the night-clubs of New York to pay for his studies of architect which he gave up in 1920, so as to devote himself to music. In 1924, he became director of the group "The Washingtonians" and appeared at the Cotton Club, till 1932. Considered from then as the head of the best jazz orchestra, he was regularly asked for concerts and tours in all the world, until his death in May 1974.

Duke Ellington with Louis Armstrong the most important of the creators of jazz. The genius of Armstrong appears in the improvisations as a soloist, when Ellington gives the best of himself with his great orchestra. The blues has a place of choice in his compositions, but it is enhanced by a sumptuous orchestration, a subtle harmonic climate and some sonorous combinations of a rare delicacy.
