DUKE

ELLINGTON—the immortal "Duke". A man of dignity and beauty. A man who took his music from the earthiness of the blues to sheer orchestral elegance. Human dignity and a musical intellect unmatched by his peers. His compositions and sheer perfection of his orchestra will be remembered in the posterity of "everyman's entertainment" and the respect of the most critical appraisers of music everywhere.

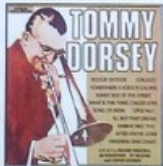

These original artist recordings have been taken from a treasury of broadcast and live shows in the 40's and 50's. The listener may hear slight broadcast and transmission noises or audience sounds. Although recorded monophonic, these recordings will be greatly enhanced by your stereo reproduction equipment.
